

YouGov Poll: Stimulus Daily Questions

Sample 2,504 US Adults
Margin of Error ±2.9%

1. If you were to receive $600 from the federal government as a stimulus payment, what would you be most likely to do with the majority of the funds?

| | |
|---|-------|
| 1) Pay bills | 28% |
| 2) Buy essentials (food, hygiene products, etc.) | 14% |
| 3) Buy non-essential items (electronics, books, etc.) | 3% |
| 4) Give it to family or friends | 2% |
| 5) Give it to a charitable organization | 3% |
| 6) Put it in emergency savings | 20% |
| 7) Save for a home | 3% |
| 8) Invest in the stock market (not for retirement) | 2% |
| 9) Save for retirement | 5% |
| 10) Pay toward debts | 17% |
| 11) Don't know | 4% |
| Totals | 101% |
| Unweighted N | 2,504 |

2. If Congress were to approve a stimulus package that would provide one-time stimulus checks of $600 per American, do you believe that amount of money would be too much, too little, or about right?

| | |
|----------------|-------|
| 1) Too much | 5% |
| 2) About right | 17% |
| 3) Too little | 70% |
| 4) Don't know | 7% |
| Totals | 99% |
| Unweighted N | 2,504 |

3. Would you support or oppose an extension of the United States' federal eviction moratorium, which would continue a temporary pause on residential evictions for renters who cannot pay their rent and other fees during COVID-19?

| | |
|---------------------|-------|
| 1) Strongly support | 59% |
| 2) Somewhat support | 20% |
| 3) Somewhat oppose | 8% |
| 4) Strongly oppose | 7% |
| 5) Don't know | 6% |
| Totals | 100% |
| Unweighted N | 2,504 |

YouGov Poll: Stimulus Daily Questions

This YouGov Direct Poll was conducted from December 19, 2020 at 5:30 p.m. EST to December 20, 2020 at 5:30 p.m. EST. Data were weighted according to age, gender, race, and education to be nationally representative.