Currently transgender people who wish to change their legal gender have to apply for a gender recognition certificate. This requires someone to have a diagnosis of gender dysphoria from a doctor, provide evidence they have lived in their new gender for at least two years, and make a declaration they intend to live in their new gender for the rest of their life. Only people over 18 can currently apply for a gender recognition certificate. Would you support or oppose the following changes to these rules?

Making it a criminal offence to make a false application or statutory declaration for gender recognition
