As you may know, the G7 is an annual conference of the world's leading economies: Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the UK and the US. Prime Ministers and Presidents come together to discuss how to solve shared international challenges. Beforehand, they consult different groups in society including the "Youth 7", which represents people aged between 18–30. How much confidence, if any, would you say you have in the G7 to solve shared international challenges?
